

Freegal Quick Start Guide

What is Freegal?

- Downloadable music service for Library card holders
- Download up to 5 songs or videos per week from over 100 genres that you can keep forever
- Songs can be downloaded in an MP3 format from a computer using the Freegal Website or from a mobile device using the Freegal App

Using Freegal on a Computer

- Go to www.btpl.org
- Point your cursor on the Downloads tab
- Click on Freegal on the right-hand most column under the Music tab and then
- Enter your Library Card Number and Last Name

Getting Music

- Browse for music, or use the search bar to search for artists, songs or albums
- Find a song to download or add to your wish list
- Click Download Now +(plus sign) to the right of the song name
- At the prompt, select Save File and choose where you want to save the song on your computer (typically Windows Media Player or iTunes)

Once it is downloaded on your computer, it can then be transferred to a portable device or a CD.

A download usage counter is located in the upper right corner displaying your weekly allotment. For instance, 1/5 means that you have a weekly limit of 5 downloads, and you have used 1 of those downloads.

Transferring from computer to iTunes

- Open iTunes
- Click on Music
- Click and drag the song files from Desktop into the Music folder

The next time you sync your device, the Freegal file will be both on your “home base” computer and your mobile device.

Sync your device using one of the following methods:

- Connect your device with a USB cable and either Sync it or manually drag the songs to the iOS device - or –
- Use iTunes Match which will automatically transfer all your music to all your devices with no intervention on your part

Mobile Apps

Freegal mobile apps are currently available in the Apple App Store and the Google Play Store for many of the portable devices including Android phone and Tablet, iPhone, iPad, or iPod Touch
